

generationOn Schools

real-world learning
through service

Whether you are trying out service-learning for the first time, seeking to deepen and expand service-learning in your school, or working to develop and sustain a school-wide culture of service-learning, generationOn Schools is for you!

What is a generationOn School?

A generationOn School is a place where academic learning intersects with real-world service experience to guide students in becoming engaged, responsible global citizens.

A generationOn School...

— —> EDUCATES students using Learning to Give standards-aligned lessons and resources.

— —> EQUIPS students with 21st Century Skills through real-world problem-solving and service opportunities.

— —> EMPOWERS students, teachers, parents and community members to make their mark on the world!

Contact:

Joan Belschwender, generationOn Indiana
Facilitated in Indiana by IASP and IMLEA

Email: generationOn@iasp.org

Phone: 317-891-9900 x 201

Joining generationOn Schools yields many benefits for students, schools and communities. There is no cost to join or participate. GenerationOn Schools offers:

★ Over 1,600 K-12 standards-aligned (Common Core, state and international) service-learning and philanthropy education lessons focused on real-world problem-solving.

★ A variety of online and in-person professional development opportunities with targeted support for educators at all levels of experience.

★ An online classroom Service-Learning Tracker.

★ Monthly e-newsletter highlighting timely lessons and resources, service-learning stories and more.

★ Recognition for student and school service and service-learning.

generationOn Schools Directory

★ <http://www.generationon.org/educators/programs/schools-program/registration/directory>

Join today!